22/007. Update on Delph Cottage Planning

Resolved that Cllr A Irving will keep the committee updated upon hearing from the Borough Council's representative.

22/008. School Weathervane

Cllr D Healey informed the committee of the costs received by Daresbury Primary School to repair the weathervane and construct the scaffolding. There is no insulation figure received to date. The school is looking into the Area Forum Grants.

Resolved that the weathervane is an important part of the village's heritage and should be preserved. Cllr D Healey will continue to work with the school and report back.

22/009. Defibrillator

Noted that training is required for the correct use of the defibrillator and Cllr D Healy will investigate further.

22/010. Village Hall Maintenance

Clearing of the gutters will take place on Monday 30th May. The alarm system is maintained twice a year and the Cllrs expressed their concerns of the costs.

Noted that Cllr D Healey will obtain a few quotes from different companies to present to the Parish Council.

22/011. Queen's Platinum Jubilee

Cllr D Healey updated the committee on preparations to date. The 'Scarecrow Competition' has had fourteen entries so far and been very welcomed with the amazing efforts that the residents have put in to decorating the front of their houses and gardens. All entry proceeds are to be donated to Halton Hospice. Warrington Guardian are visiting on Friday 20th May to take pictures of the village.

Cllr D Healey has involved the local school with the focus on the environment and will be accompanying the children to Owens Walk to plant and water seeds. Also provided by the Parish Council, are bat boxes, bird boxes and insect boxes. Cllr S Wade will also attend on behalf of the Parish Council.

The Chairman, Cllr J Warburton, would like to express his thanks to Cllr D Healey, on behalf of the Parish Council and residents for the tremendous turnout and success of the recent organised Village Quiz Night.
